School Officials Discuss Computer

Harper College officials explained plans for shared use of its computer facilities to school board members and superintendents from nine area school districts at a dinner meeting Wednesday night.

Louis P. Passano, superintendent of Prospect Heights District 23, presided at the meeting, the last one to be held by the Arlington Area School Board.

Roy Seidel, data processing director of Harper College, and Robert E. Lahti, college president, explained the college's desire to offer elementary and high school districts use of the IBM 360 Model 30 computer, ordered by the college for delivery next fall.

Seidel said the college will be able to rent the equipment at a reduced cost since its primary use will be for instruction of students in the data processing curriculum.

Additional computer hours will be used in processing the college's records, said Seidel. Remaining free time will be available for work from the school districts wishing to participate, he said, provided their contribution financially provide operational personnel.

BECAUSE the computer can be programmed with a store of instant information, Seidel said it could be valuable to any school district for record keeping, preparing an individual's record in its district, specific statistics on students, curriculum, and in determining future needs.

The cost barrier prohibits most school districts from operating their own computer, said Lahti.

Some board members questioned the economy of their contributing to the cost of high-labeled computer personnel because their districts are small.

Participation of any school district in a shared use program is optional, Lahti said.

He said Seidel said it is possible that an application will be made for a federal grant if a project were organized to demonstrate a cooperative area plan among three levels of education. He said if the districts were interested in such a plan it could be submitted to the United States Office of Education for consideration.

general basis, Seidel said. He said the purpose of his presentation was to point out that the equipment will be available if a district is interested.

Representatives from the meeting were asked to discuss the cooperative use of the computer with their boards and indicate their interest in forming a committee to study details of the plan to the college.

Representatives from District 15, Palatine; District 21, Wheeling; District 23, Prospect Heights; District 25, Arlington Heights; District 26, Skokie; District 28, Schaumburg; District 30, Mount Prospect; District 32, Deerfield; District 34, Barrington and the meeting.

Mrs. Edward Carpenter, new president of the Arlington Heights Chapter of the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago, announces that this week is Baby Week.

Baby Week was originated in 1914 by Infant Welfare Society as a means of calling attention to the needs of underprivileged babies. It was then that Lorado Taft created the figure of the mother and babe which is used as the official symbol of the Society. As part of the 50th anniversary celebration a bronze replica of the figure was presented to the Art Institute of Chicago where it has been placed on permanent exhibit in one of the enclosed

THE 22 active members of the Arlington Heights Center help out two days a month at the Northwestern Station of the Infant Welfare Society, located at 1400 N. Augusta in Chicago. The Well Baby Clinic gives regular medical and developmental evaluations of the child plus family health education to parents. Prenatal care under medical supervision is given to mothers to give a sound preparation for parenthood and a better chance for a healthy baby.

1 The purpose of the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago is "to improve the health of coming generations by caring for the mother before the baby is born and with a competent professional staff, to teach her how to care for herself, her child and her family and to provide regular physical or mental health supervision and instruction."

THIS YEAR the Infant Welfare Society is helping with the inoculation program in Chicago. Arlington Heights members will be helping in the "Cultural Corner", part of the child development center, during their regular visits to the station. The women will read stories and use hand puppets to children at the station.

Mrs. Carpenter, a member of Infant Welfare for six years, said that the Arlington Heights Center has one benefit each year, the Post and Paddock Party to be held June 2 this year. "Last year we turned in $3,600 profit to the Society from this benefit," said Mrs. Carpenter. The party consists of the races, cocktails, buffet dinner and dancing.

Members of the Arlington Heights Center are collecting used children's or adults' clothing, toothbrushes, bath tub toys, squeeze toys, and training cups, all very much needed at their station in the city.

Junior Women Get Awards

Awards were presented Junior Woman's Clubs in Seventh District at their meeting last week. Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect and Des Plaines tied to receive award for the highest scholarship for teachers of exceptional children.

Atine Junior Woman's Club received awards for the best library program and the most money raised for the February Fair.

Atine Junior Woman's Club received awards for the most money per capita for the February Fair, 100 per cent support of Feb. Fair and for the highest contribution to HOPE.

A black and white photograph of four young women standing side-by-side, smiling at the camera. They are holding a large, dark bouquet of flowers together in front of them. The woman on the far left is wearing a dark vest over a light-colored blouse with a bow at the neck. The second woman from the left is wearing a light-colored sweater with a decorative pattern at the hem. The third woman is wearing a dark, patterned dress. The woman on the far right is wearing a plaid vest over a light-colored blouse. The background is slightly out of focus, showing some foliage.

"It's not like this in Hawaii," said members of the fashion show-committee when they met to plan the ninth annual luncheon and fashion show to be given by the Northwest Community Hospital Women's Auxiliary, Oct. 10 at O'Hare Inn. Holding the bouquet of Hawaiian flowers are (left to right): Mrs. Robert Willard; Mrs. Robert Lockwood; Mrs. John Flynn and Mrs. O.C. Jacobson.

Members of the fashion show committee met recently to plan for the Northwest Community Hospital - Women's Auxiliary 9th annual luncheon fashion show to be held October 10 at Saks Fifth Avenue will do the fashion show with their own models and fashions from their downtown store.

As the O'Hare Inn Ballroom has a capacity of 1,000 Mrs. F. O'Neil, chairman of the committee, suggests plans for sending be made this summer.

The Fashion Show committee is composed of the following: Mrs. A. F. O'Neil, chairman; Mrs. Allan Grady, co-chairman; Mrs. Ralph Lidge, honorary chairman; Mrs. Ernest Rohde, invitations; Mrs.

D. C. Jacobsen, tickets and reservations; Mrs. Stanley C. Amren, program; Mrs. Paul Knott, decorations; Mrs. Robert Alfisi, fashion co-ordinator; Mrs. John Lindstrom and Mrs. John E. Flynn, prizes; Mrs. Read Q. Chalfant, publicity; Mrs. Robert Lockwood, visiting; Mrs. E. J. Jacobs, hostesses; Mrs. Felix Krock, cocktail tickets; Mrs. Arthur Danz, secretary; Mrs. Phillip

... by Frank E. Von Arx

"So LBJ feels that the economy will be soft in the first half of the year—SO, WHAT, MAN?"

Gov. Otto Kerner and spokesman for the U.S. Weather Bureau defended the state's tornado warning system after severe storms ripped through northern Illinois and the Midwest on Friday.

The death toll would seem to allow room for improvement in the method of operating under tornado alerts. One woman in Belvidere said she had paid little attention to warnings because there had been so many alerts in the past and nothing had happened the other times. State officials said they can have information available to radio stations within 10 minutes. The problem, obviously, is to shorten that time gap. It is possible for the first approach of a tornado to come undetected, as the one that hit Oak Lawn. But once the famed siren wails, it can be traced back by location.

The solution is a statewide emergency weather broadcast station that could be part of Civil Defense disaster plans. A central post of such a radio station would be the monitoring of radio broadcasts on the police wave lengths, the weather bureau, telephones and other sources of information.

The quickest source of information during a storm is the police radio. You can train the siren just by listening to emergency calls in surrounding communities and you can plot the path of the storm.

The value of such an emergency radio operation would be instantaneous relaying of information to the public. It is the hope that the public would be kept aware of the situation by turning to a certain spot on the dial.

Plans such as schools, office buildings and industrial plants and sites of action for tornadoes start skimming across the country. It is hoped that a radio station would make these plans effective.

Anything that can shorten the warning time by as much as 10 minutes is worth the effort. Illinois appears to have been fortunate and southern tornado country and northern states that may be perfectly efficient in open fields.

Vantage Point

... by Jack Vandermyn

Gov. Otto Kerner visited a hill passed by the house and across that would have enabled residents of fire protection districts in their tracts. Currently, the tracts are represented by the judge of the county court.

The bill was introduced by Rep. Eugene Schickman (R-Arlington Heights).

Many people realize that fire protection districts in the northwest suburban area are not the best. There is no Cook County fire department. Unincorporated areas must incorporate into fire protection districts to provide themselves with protection.

There are three big fire protection districts in this immediate area. One of them, Prospect Heights, maintains its own fire department on a volunteer basis. The other two, Mount Prospect and Arlington Heights, are served on a contract basis by the Mount Prospect full-time, professional fire department.

Each fire protection district has three trustees. The trustees are appointed by the court and serve staggered, two, four and six-year terms.

It is the responsibility of the trustees to determine whether the district will provide their own fire protection or contract with a neighboring municipal fire department. Economies dictate their decision.

clock watch with a fully staffed group of firemen on hand in the fire station at all times.

This means that the district in Prospect Heights' case, must contract on a fee basis.

AS the area becomes more mobile, with people living in mobile homes, it becomes increasingly difficult to maintain a volunteer fire department.

Recognizing this, the Elin Grove Rural Fire Protection District has contracted with Mount Prospect to provide it with fire fighting services.

IT MIGHT appear that the citizens of Mount Prospect are being short changed by such an arrangement, however, this is not the case.

Because of the revenue Mount Prospect has received from the Elin Grove District, it can purchase more and better equipment than it would need just to protect the village itself.

That means that top fire fighting equipment, that otherwise might not be available, can be used for protection of the village itself.

MOUNT Prospect has an enviable fire fighting record. This is reflected in its low fire insurance rates.

Arlington Heights had the same enviable low record—before the Schaefer Furniture Store hit the community and set the fire. The statistics show that in the last year just how serious the problem is. The fire protection districts, at least in the northwest suburban area, are well equipped with personnel and equipment.

'Symbolic Act', Penalty

A three-judge U.S. Court of Appeals in Boston has ruled that the 1965 amendment to the Selective Service Act forbidding the destruction or mutilation of draft cards is unconstitutional.

The court based its ruling on that of a federal district court in New York which held that a public demonstration.

"Any singling out of persons engaged in a protest for special treatment strikes at the core of what the First Amendment protects," said the court, holding that the card burning was a "symbolic act" of free speech.

Nevertheless, the court's conviction was upheld because the court found him guilty of violating another section of the law—failing to have his draft card in his possession.

In different cases, however, two other federal courts have ruled that the act authorizing provision is constitutional.

Thus the final decision may be left to the Supreme Court, since the Justice Department decided to appeal the Boston ruling.

While the result is the same, whether a man is fined or failed because of protesting against something or other—if he is willing to accept the practical consequences of his act.

The law requiring draftsmen to have their cards in their possession seems a reasonable one, as reasonable as requiring motorists to carry their license while driving. But anyone may burn his driver's license, or his birth certificate, or anything else, as a symbolic act of protest against something or other—if he is willing to accept the practical consequences of his act.

It would hardly appear that the Republic would crumble should the same apply to draft cards.

Arlington's Netters Take Own Tourney

BY BOB CARSTLINE

Arlington walked off with the first-place trophy in the First Annual Arlington Tennis Invitational Meet Saturday, even though the point-spreads don't make the fact clear.

The Cardinals and Nike East tied for top honors with 25 team points apiece, but because the Cardinals netters tripped up Nike East netters in three of the four divisions, the Red returned possession of the title.

Arlington took first in both a doubles and a singles event, while the number-one and number-two doubles events, and second place in the singles event.

1984 BMSZ and Bill

Van Buchemman teamed to score 54 of a possible 63 points on en route to a number-one doubles triumph. They finished 11 points ahead of Nike East's number-one and 20 ahead of Forest View's fifth-place pair of Jim Mangrove and Mark Thompson.

John Brest and Matt Wing of Arlington were the number-two doubles event, getting a total of 45 points. Nike East's number-one singles action. He was only five of his first 18 games, but rallied to finish with 41 points — only seven back of Nike East's Roy Bishop, who took top honors.

ARLINGTON'S JOHN JAKEL started slowly but made a fine comeback for second honors at Saturday's Arlington Tennis Invitational Tennis Meet, but his victory over a Nike East netter for the number-one singles action. He was only five of his first 18 games, but rallied to finish with 41 points — only seven back of Nike East's Roy Bishop, who took top honors.

Forest View's Rich Gillespie finished with 21 points for seventh place.

Steve Branch was the number-three singles in the number-two doubles event, taking 31 points. Arlington's Bob Gallagher placed second with 26. The number-one doubles was led by Diana's Paul Meier.

THE THIRDSIDE was to be a well-remembered and laughter in the well and Red Sox in the year.

The Arlington 800-yard race, which included Lodi, John Kanne, Gene Agnew, and Chuck Kanne, started with a place points, and Kanne added a fourth-place finish.

Kanne also scored 600 points in the 220, and McCaffrey finished out with 100 points, scoring with a fifth in the 100.

Arlington might have added first place in the mile relay, but an accident cost the Cardinals.

Arlington's Bob Gallagher finished seventh in the number-one singles action at Saturday's Arlington Tennis Invitational Tennis Meet, but his victory over a Nike East netter assured the Cardinals of a team title.

Park Board Sets Budget

The Rolling Meadows Park District has passed its 1987-88 operating budget only $1,173 higher than its current budget and with no anticipated revenue.

The approved budget totals $95,180 for the four operating categories, compared to $93,465 for the previous budget.

Revenue for the coming year is expected to total $103,640. This includes an anticipated income of $48,400 from corporate taxes, $16,000 from the recreation tax, $14,000 from the pool tax, $500 from corporate income, $15,700 from recreation income and $22,900 from pool income.

HERE is a category-by-category breakdown comparing the old budget to the new:

- Administration — old, $18,815; new, $17,400.
- Maintenance — old, $23,900; new, $24,630.
- Recreation — old, $28,200; new, $29,555.
- Swimming Pool — old, $24,400; new, $23,175.

The swimming pool is again expected to break even, while the recreation program again will require subsidization.

Swimming pool income for the coming budget year is expected to amount to $22,900, matched against anticipated operating expenses of $23,175.

The recreation program, on the other hand, will cost an estimated $29,555 for the coming year, opposed to an anticipated income from fees of only $17,700.

Significantly, the budget does not provide funds for the purchase of land and buildings, or major improvement programs.

THE PARK DISTRICT commissioners, for the past several months, have been holding special "committee of the whole" meetings to plan future park development.

Many citizens, upon hearing of proposed plans formulated at these meetings, have assumed the commissioners are going to immediately finance and carry them out.

Commission chairman Hal Cobby took pains to dispell this misconception.

"These meetings have only been held to determine what is feasible — what we eventually think the park district should have and be," he said. "These plans may not be carried out in their entirety for years."

To this the commissioners, at these special meetings, have expressed common sense.

A garden club, recently organized by the Rolling Meadows Park District, will hold its first meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday at Carl Sandburg Junior High School.

Membership is open to all residents of Rolling Meadows. The organization committee will present by-laws and objectives of the club at the first meeting. Possible club projects, including participation in Beautification Week-April 22-25, will be discussed.

Information on the club is available from the Rolling Meadows Park District or Paul Hoffmann, 792-1786.

Regner Unhappy with Governor's Budget Message

At least one Republican state representative has expressed displeasure at Gov. Otto Regner's budget address, delivered to the legislature last Wednesday.

Rep. David Regner (R-Mount Prospect) called the governor's speech, "extremely unimaginative and dealing in generalities."

Regner deplored the fact that the Legislature had to wait until mid-March to see what the governor's budget legislation heir the governor's budget message. "I am happy now that I am a co-sponsor of a bill which would require the governor to make his budget presentation prior to Feb. 1," Regner said.

Under the present system of introducing budget legislation at mid-March, Regner does not believe that the legislature has sufficient time to study the proposals.

"Our Appropriations Committee started on Tuesday's budget meetings this week and will continue them through the week," Regner, a constituent member, said.

CONCERNING the speech itself, Regner said that it dealt with generalities rather than specifics. "For example, the governor says that we are one of the lowest states in the number of state employees per 100,000 population, but he does not supply any statistics of both the state and the nation," he said.

"Actually, in the last six years the state payroll has risen from under 60,000 employees to just under 100,000 today," Regner said.

The governor called the Illinois Mental Health program one of the model programs in the nation and requested by increases in expenditures. "I agree the expenditures are needed," Regner said, "but I certainly don't feel that we are a model for the nation."

Gov. Regner's budget calls for expenditures of $5,726,000,000 rather than the $5,549,000,000 actually requested in the speech, Regner said.

"The governor actually excluded from his presentation $35.5 million which are revolving funds always included in the budget and $102 million in duplicate appropriations, which have always been continued in past budget messages," Regner said.

Regner claimed that the governor's budget does not include capital improvements which will be financed by the Illinois Building Authority. The Mount Prospect representative said these amounts have been included in the budget message.

Many of the budgetary recommendations for cuts have been ignored," Regner said. "And some amounts have been added. The message actually is a shakedown and we cannot determine what else said we are the actual appropriations bill."

Regner said that he would like to see the governor's budget message in the hands of the people.

How Vandals Got Their Name

(Continued From Page 1) Iwan Gennare and the Roman emperor, by which all African west of Carthage was called to the Vandals. But it is 439 A.D. the Vandals took Carthage by surprise, and while the Roman emperor was making plans to recover the province, Gennare made an alliance with Attila, king of the Huns. The Vandals were then effectively sealed against the Roman.

An immense fort was built and the Vandals regarded the shores of Sicily and Italy. In 455 A.D. they pillaged Rome for 14 days. The island of Sardinia was conquered, and Spain, Italy, Sicily, Greece, Egypt and Asia Minor were plundered every year by the Vandals.

THE VANDAL kingdom was destroyed in 533 A.D. and was annexed to the Byzantine Empire. The Vandals were Arian Christians, a heretical movement arising from the teachings of Arius (256-336 A.D.), and they were said to have persecuted the Catholics with great cruelty.

And that is how the noun "vandal" originated, and what does it mean to the taxpayer?

primarily vandals, named after a barbaric tribe that "laid waste indiscriminately churches, fields and houses," leave more about their namesake, they might think twice about their actions.

Leon Fazzino, Superintendent of School Dist. 23, said that while his schools (in Prospect Heights) are usually caught before they have to brag about it, "if they don't tell someone, there's no reason for doing it."

Evening Classes To Begin

A skin and Scuba diving course will lead off this season in the spring term of the Maine Adult Evening School.

The drive course will meet from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays for five weeks.

Classes will begin Monday in basic bridge, French cooking, flower arranging, German, golf, solo for men, pool, marksmanship, sewing, typing and welding. On Tuesday, a driver improvement program will start for licensed drivers.

Thursday, May 4, communitarianism will open in health and child, bookkeeping, bridge, Chinese cooking, French, golf, interior decorating, solo for women, knitting, sewing, talking and typing.

Regner's driving training and tennis classes will be held Saturday mornings. All classes will be held in Maine Township High School East at Dempster and Foster in Park Ridge. The course is welding, which will be held in Maine West.

Registration information is available at the evening school office at Maine East. The telephone numbers are 725-8455 or 823-4484.

With the new Touch-Tone phone, the TOUCH-TONE dial comes to you—because it's right in the receiver. You can make a call without stretching. Then make another without hanging up—just press the recall button under the dial. When you do hang up, the dial disappears, so the TRIMLINE phone looks like a lovely piece of sculpture.

You can see the new TRIMLINE phone on display at your local telephone business office. It's available with TOUCH-TONE, in most areas, or rotary dial. The dial lights up when you use the phone. The TRIMLINE phone comes in wall or table models, and in a variety of decorator colors.

Weddings and Engagements

Susan Lepinski, James Auchter Exchange Vows in Our Lady of Wayside

MISS. JAMES AUCHTER

White ribbons and lace-trimmed gowns and white gladiolus and roses tied with yellow bows brightened the altar at the noon nuptial mass, April 4, in Our Lady of the Wayside Church when Susan Lepinski and James J. Auchter were united in marriage by the groom's uncle, Monsignor Edward Auchter.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Lepinski of Arlington Heights, is a graduate of Arlington High School and Mount Mary College, Milwaukee. She is a member of Phi Alpha Theta and Sigma Tau Delta and presently does substitute teaching.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Auchter of Green Bay, Wis., a graduate of Marquette University and a member of Alpha Delta Gamma. He is presently employed by Trans Co.

A four-length pair of lace gown with belted bodice and attached chapel-length train was worn by the bride. The husband and wife were dressed with Altona lace and heading. Her veil was headed over the top of her head.

She wore a headpiece of lace and pearls and Altona lace which held a bouquet of chrysanthemums, French silk lilies and white roses. The bride carried a bouquet of white roses in which a blue carnation was the only color in the center.

MISS TRANA

Mr. and Mrs. David C. Trana of Arlington Heights announced the engagement of their daughter Judith Ann to Harry Dennis McIlrath, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. McIlrath of Altona, N.D. The engaged couple are graduates of the State School of Science of Walpole, N.D.

A June wedding is planned.

Her bouquet was of yellow and blue daisies. The bridesmaids dressed in white with blue sashes. The groom wore a white tuxedo with a white bow tie. The ceremony was held in the church sanctuary.

MISS BLAIR

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Blair, Des Plaines, announced the engagement of their daughter Donna Lynn to Jerry DuParvise Beagle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Oliver Beagle, Franklin, Ill.

Miss Blair graduated from Forest View High School and her fiancé will graduate from the University of Chicago in 1964.

A June 11 wedding is planned.

The ceremony will be held at St. Columba Church in Rolling Meadows.

MISS BIRD

Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Bird of Evanston, Ill., announced the engagement of their daughter Donna Lynn to Jerry DuParvise Beagle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Oliver Beagle, Franklin, Ill.

Miss Bird is a graduate of Prospect High School and her fiancé will graduate from the University of Chicago in 1964.

A June 11 wedding is planned.

The ceremony will be held at St. Columba Church in Rolling Meadows.

MISS HALSTEAD

Mr. and Mrs. Russell W. Halstead of Arlington Heights, announced the engagement of their daughter, Carol Ann, to Philip Joseph Hilde, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Hilde of Lafayette, Ind.

Carol Ann is a graduate of St. Mary's High School, Hammond, Pa., and is presently employed as a general receptionist for the Chicago Housing Co.

Her fiancé is a graduate of Prospect High School and is an industrial technician for Soap Co. in Topeka, Kan.

A July wedding will be held at St. Columba Church in Rolling Meadows.

MISS CASHION

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cashion of Arlington Heights, announced the engagement of their daughter, Jean to Donald Knopfle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Knopfle and the late Mr. Walter Knopfle of Mount Prospect.

Miss Cashion graduated from Arlington High School and Southern Illinois University where she majored in dental hygiene. She is a member of Sigma Sigma Sigma society.

She is presently employed as a dental hygienist with Drs. C. H. Shaver and C. F. Terrell in Mount Prospect.

Her fiancé graduated from Arlington High School and is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

An October 28 wedding is planned.

Rolling Meadows Votes $60,000 Street Repairs

The Rolling Meadows City Council Tuesday night approved $60,000 worth of major repairs to city streets.

The council passed a resolution requesting that the amount from state funds for the city be used for the repairs.

It will purchase contract work to remove and replace broken and settled concrete curbs and gutters, and resurfacing work.

Plans for the major repairs are Central Rd. from Wilks to Linden, Linden Rd. from Central Rd. to Cedar Lane, Central Rd. from Campbell to St. James Street, and Central Rd. from Martin to Kerkhof Rd.

In addition, the council asked for a second request for money to repair streets in the city.

IN RELATED action, the council approved a resolution directing the city to advertise for bids for asphalt patching curbs.

arterial and non-arterial streets. Bids will be accepted until May 23.

The council also passed a resolution calling for bids on $125,000 worth of sewer repair work in the city. It is to be done in the city's sewer system.

A public hearing on a contract for sewer work was held on May 23. The agreement would allow the developer of Davenport Development to alter existing from 81,000 square feet to 82,000 square feet.

The property involved is a second request for money to repair streets in the city.

IN RELATED action, the council approved a resolution directing the city to advertise for bids for asphalt patching curbs.

"Execution of Yellow States Approved previously had been held up pending changes in state laws and other technicalities."

"Execution of the final plan in the Rolling Meadows development and final land development plan, all changes requested by the city, including the city's sewer system and fire hydrants, have been made. The city's sewer system is now complete."

"Transfer of $5,000 from the water deposit fund to the city's sewer fund. This is a temporary loan to meet a budget shortage caused by a delay in receipt of money."

"Designation of the week of April 23-29 as 'Clean up Week'."

Park District Stretches Funds to Span Tax Gap

The Arlington Heights Park District will cover expenditures for the next 10 days with money borrowed from other funds because it has not yet received tax money.

Primarily 1967-68 budget figures, on the other hand, show that the district's budget is higher than ever.

Major items on the budget are property taxes, $132,100; annual pool taxes, $64,500; and bonds, $22,234. But since the corporate, recreational special land acquisition and federal funds.

The new budget is about $200,000 more than that of last year. Property taxes, however, have gone down almost 20,000 because they are based on a lower rate.

THE TAX rate, 2.340 cents per $100 assessed value, has been lowered because the district's total assessed value has increased by about $5 million.

The 1968 tax rate was 2.662 cents assessed value of the property.

The Board of Commissioners last night voted to propose to the Arlington Heights voters the raising of 15 additional mills.

The tax gives up $3.30 per year for each $1,000 of additional assessed value of the property.

Translated to dollars for divided households, some figures mean that an Arlington Heights family with a $10,000 home pays $23.40 in taxes for 15 additional mills.

Library Interior Design Approved

—Adjoining but separated reading areas for teen-agers and children.

—An expanded adult reading area.

—Reference, periodical and miscellany area in the library's center.

THE LIBRARY initially will have room for 27,000 volumes in main floor, open stacks and 20,000 in closed basement stacks. The board estimates 200,000 volumes, with 50,000 always circulating.

Library equipment under building, including furniture, carpet, office machine and shelving, will cost about $150,000, board member Harold H. Stephens Jr. estimated. He stressed this is "a very rough figure," which could rise to $150,000 to $200,000.

In other business, the board approved a salary increase of $1,500 for head librarians, Mrs. Mary L. Ewell. Her annual salary will be $9,000.

The board will hold a special meeting at 7 p.m. Tuesday in Memorial Library to elect newly elected members and elect officers. The next regular meeting will be held at 8 p.m. May 15.

Weighty Sale

It seemed like a good idea to sell a automobile dealer at New London, Conn.

Thinking he had bid on a fine piece of property, the dealer offered $11,000 for a piece of property of each customer's weight.

One of the first customers was a 187-pound woman who bought a $395 car for eight dollars.

Council Petitions For Sales Tax Hike

Rolling Meadows is considering petitioning the state legislature to increase the current sales tax by one-half per cent.

The proposal is contained in a resolution which has not yet reached the floor of the city council but has been recommended for passage by the former council finance committee.

It was distributed to council members for their consideration and handed to the finance committee for formal action.

It presents an alleged inequity in the distribution of the current sales tax and a proposal to the government to broaden the present tax base by taxing services not previously covered by the tax.

THE PROPOSED resolution says "most small communities, including Rolling Meadows, do not have the resources to sustain the large commission in relation to large companies where the sales are made."

For these reasons, it is recommended that the city petition the legislature to order increases the sales tax by a half per cent for the municipalities, and that the sales tax be applied to a community on the basis of its population to provide a more equitable distribution.

Viet Hero Comes Home In Time for Birthday

BY ELIZABETH ALANNE

Donna Bradley has served two military commissions for her service in Viet Nam during the year and four months he spent in two tours of duty. He has been in the Arlington Heights in time to celebrate his birthday.

His two commissions, the Air Medal and the Army Commendation Medal, were both awarded for action while Bradley served as a sergeant in the 1st Cavalry Division.

Bradley, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Bradley, 311 N. Douglas, entered the service in 1962 and went to Viet Nam as a volunteer after six months.

His second tour of duty, which lasted nearly a year, was in a battle zone of Viet Nam approximately 22 miles north of Saigon.

A MEMBER of the Fourth Cavalry, assigned to the 25th Infantry Division, he served the Army Commendation Medal in Nov. 2, 1966.

The Army report states that Bradley was serving as a sergeant in a helicopter crew manning the gun of a downed gunship.

Bradley, under the direction of the gun crew, was manning the gun for five minutes while waiting for the downed gunship.

He then returned to his unit and was awarded the Air Medal for his service.

He then returned to his unit and was awarded the Air Medal for his service.

He then returned to his unit and was awarded the Air Medal for his service.

Bradley had to come and pick up his son from a Viet Nam.

ONE MONTH later, he was in action that earned him the Air Medal. He was the gunner of a helicopter unit.

"I think anyone should be willing to spend two or three years serving his country. Whatever you think about the war, it is there. Right now we are in a war, and you need to be there."

He will remain in the Air Force until he is discharged from the Army this fall. He plans to study nuclear technology at Southern Illinois University after his discharge.

Some Day

... by Frank E. Von Arx

Dear Kit:
Summer vacation is just around the corner and if you have not qualified for a federal grant in the poverty program or at least a partial grant to conduct an educational experiment you may face the horrid prospect of going to work in your spare time.
It looks like a difficult summer ahead, especially in Miami. I suspect the village fathers are considering two laws that will seriously handicap your experiment during the hot but sunny months.
One law would establish rules for motorcycling. For instance, it would require the owners of of parents for anyone under 18 years of age to rent a motorcycle. It would have speed riding, quick starts and stops and, worse of all, it will prohibit touring.

Touring is defined as operating a motorcycle in such a manner as to attract attention. Even if you are lucky enough to rent a cycle, it is hardly worth the trouble that you can't burnish by your girl friend's smile as she looks up and takes notice.
The law would take all the fun out of springtime motorcycling and would make those fancy handbars, or highbars, which are so handy in letting the cool breeze drift down the sun-plate, a thing of the past.

They have another suggested law in Miami Prospect that will do more to curtail summer activities. They want to control parades and demonstrations. If they pass that law it will be no problem for you to demonstrate as you will offend no one. But if you are on the streets, they don't laugh, kid, they mean business. The law as it is written requires that everyone in a parade or demonstration be identified as a parader and a demonstrator. This may save growing a beard, but it will also prevent those spontaneous parades which draw extra energy of life.

The thing that really takes the humor out of the demonstrating business is the possibility that you will be on the street for a total cost of $300 from each individual for safety.
The way things are shaping up this summer, kid, is looking pretty bleak. It is not somebody's payroll. Then the only law you get will be a Social Security and income tax deduction.

WHOLE QUANTITIES LAST

The official Vantage Point economy indicator points to continued prosperity in the Chicago area.
Our economy indicator is simply the number of people we observe driving to and from work along the toll and expressways with only their noses at the wheel.
When times get a little rough, car pools are formed and more utilization of the automobile is made.

On a recent rush hour drive to the loop, we noted the presence of the automobiles carried only the driver. By splitting a little fourth grade grade to this situation, we find that if each car carried four passengers, traffic would have been reduced by 75 percent.
Thus, carried a step farther, means that if of the people using the crowded Kennedy Expressway would have been about 50 percent sooner.
The answer to the mounting Chicago area traffic problem must be a better utilization of automobiles. Perhaps this will become a reality if the gasoline tax is halved.
If proposals before the legislature become law, the price of regular gasoline will drop from 30 cents a gallon to 25 cents a gallon. Premium will go up to 30 cents.

NOTWITHSTANDING who notice the condition of the state of the road, specifically, Route 53, the only north-south highway between the far western and southern suburbs, will be the first to admit that additional revenue is needed for highway maintenance and construction.
Ann owners are not thrilled at the prospect of paying additional gasoline taxes. The price is expected to rise from 30 cents a gallon to 35 cents a gallon. The price is expected to rise from 30 cents a gallon to 35 cents a gallon. The price is expected to rise from 30 cents a gallon to 35 cents a gallon.

Record Crowd Sees Countryside Festival

Mrs. Charlotte Polari of Villa Park, winner of the top award at the Countryside Art Center's Spring Arts Festival, shows a Japanese doll to Carol Blakes, 8, from Palatine at the Festival.

A record crowd attended Countryside Art Center's Spring Arts Festival last weekend, and saw Pioneer Park Pavilion transformed into an art gallery. They watched demonstrations of woodwork or painting, paper masks, pottery-making and Japanese flower arranging.

Musical entertainment was provided by a vocal ensemble from Arlington Heights High School and Palatine High School, male quartet, Girl Scouts from St. James School, and a Japanese Ten Ceremony on Saturday.

Five artists shared in the prize money. Top award of $50 for "Best in Show" went to Charlotte Polari of Villa Park for her painting.

FIRST PRIZE of $25 for painting went to Christine Steffert of Arlington Heights. Other painting awards went to John Morhouse, Chicago; second prize, Ethel Olson, Chicago; third prize, Pat Casaroli, Lake Forest.

Fourth prize of Arlington Heights was the first prize of $25 for the prints and drawings category. Other award winners were Carol Komarski of Arlington Heights, second; Marlene Lawrence of Elk Grove Village, third.

Pat Laslo of Arlington Heights won the $35 prize for sculpture. Second prize went to Lou Baldwin of Arlington Heights; third prize to Lester Renbeck of Arlington Heights and fourth prize to Joseph Peck of Chicago.

First prize of $25 in the crafts category went to Don John of Elgin; second prize went to Lou Palmer Hall of Cicero and third prize to Gloria Mallick of Lake Forest.

WINNERS of honorable mention were Carol Komarski; Mildred Mikulovic; Don John; Betty Lapan; Pat Laslo; Anne Zahner; Win Jones; Annette Ceramide; Marjorie Schell; Christine Steffert and Ruth Courtney.

Judge of the show, Mrs. Marjorie, nationally known artist and speaker from Route 1. Special awards also were given to the Arlington Heights Garden Club, the Children's Club at Countryside and to Christine Steffert and Carol Komarski for their crafts.

Jackie Vile of Mount Prospect was chairman of the 1967 Festival.

'Someone Has to Sacrifice'

Building a Respectable Pile of Junk

Pile of junk along the curb, waiting to be picked up during spring cleaning time have different effects on everyone. Children have an insatiable curiosity that will not allow them to pass a single pile of junk without looking for a "treasure."

One of our readers was affected in another way.

"At last, Phyllis was sleeping. Before going out shopping this evening, she used the strongest wits I've seen—she wanted the yearly junk collected and hauled out to the curb."

"Last year's lawn mower and two little cars—how many—and embarrassing when I thought of the mountains I had seen in front of other houses. Nothing for it but to load the new living room furniture and the new washer and dryer."

"Phyllis may have a tough time with the laundry this year, but at least I have a respectable pile of junk now. Besides, that old water heater is going to be part of the swimming pool filter system. When we get a place in the country where I can build a swimming pool."

"And that sled just made the runner wadded. And I am saying that kiddie sled I got a score. That bookcase is solid oak and besides it came from the school where I did my first year of teaching. Sure, those text books are all ten years old, but someday I am going to read them again."

"It sure is hard to come up with a respectable pile of junk. Someone always has to sacrifice." — Douglas Higgins of Arlington Heights.

11 Chapter Bills Being Considered By Illinois House

By JACK A. VANDERMEY

A bill that would enable communities to go to the voters for approval of a tax levy for mental health facilities has been introduced in the legislature by Rep. Eugene Chapman (D-Arlington Heights).

The proposal would also enable community mental health facilities to seek voter approval for bond issues to make capital improvements in their facilities.

Rep. Chapman's proposal was submitted to the committee on revenue for hearings. The bill was the 11th introduced by the Arlington Heights Democrats in the 1967 session of the general assembly.

Most of the chapters bill introduced in the session have been introduced by Gov. Otto Kerner.

OF THE 11 House bills introduced in this session, six deal with education.

Probably the most important bill introduced in the session is the one which would set $15,000,000 as the state capital building fund for the distribution of high school districts maintaining a junior college or providing tuition in recognized public schools of some other district.

Under the legislation, the law would require that school districts in the state have to pay for the cost of a junior college tuition for students outside the area from general educational funds.

The bill has cleared the house and is now before the Senate committee on public finance where it must undergo further hearings before the committee on education.

OTHER CHAPMAN measures before the legislature would:

—Provide that the civil and criminal records of the Department of Children and Family Services be open to the general public, but shall be available to law enforcement officials, the courts and court-appointed individuals.

or persons authorized by the department's director.

—Mandate setting and making provision in another state for crimes that is a felony in Illinois, or conviction of a felony in federal court, grounds for revocation of license.

—Provide laws of absence for school teachers who wish to accept employment in an overseas department school of the department of defense.

—Permit school boards, including junior colleges, to enter into purchase or lease equipment, estimated to be more than 10 years in age, without a referendum.

—Require any school district to pay for the cost of a referendum seeking public approval of such tax.

—Authorize $375,000 for reimbursement to school districts providing two-way radio service in special education.

Even Churches Not Safe from Vandals

By GEORGE HAMILTON

(Fourth in a series)

Less than 1,500 years ago, vandals don't open church property or any other public or private building.

At Our Lady of the Wayside Church and school in Arlington Heights, Rev. Harold O'Connell, pastor, said that vandals have been breaking into the church and stealing property.

Owners of 2 Parcels Of Land Seek Rezoning

Cook County will consider rezoning two parcels of land in Wheeling Township at a hearing to be held at 4 p.m. on Monday, May 15 at the Arlington Heights village hall.

Orea W. Coler, owner of 1 1/2 acres of land now zoned R-4 (single family) at the southwest corner of Madison La. and Camp McDonald roads, seeks R-6 (multi-family) zoning.

Coler, who is being represented by attorney Ole I. Olsen, said that he intends to build efficiency apartments at the location.

A second case involved three acres at the southeast corner of Camp McDonald and Wolf roads, in an unincorporated area of Wheeling Township.

Victor J. Cacciatore, representing owners of the land, said he is a trustee with the LaSalle National Bank, seeks to rezone the property from R-4 (single family) to R-6 (general commercial).

Proposed use of this tract is for a development of retail stores and shopping area.

Members of the Cook County Zoning Board of Appeals are open to the public. Objectors will be heard at the public hearings.

"Does anyone in your family use the tollway?"

"Two months ago our oldest son started for Indiana on the tollway. The last we heard he was in Des Plaines still looking for a ramp."

"What tollway are you using?"

"We find South Beloit convenient. It's a straight run to Chicago from there."

"When you return from Chicago where do you exit?"

"South Milwaukee is beautiful, except when the horses are running at Arlington Park, the Euclid Av. is good except during showstorms."

"Do you ever avoid using the tollway?"

"Yes, every time I drive south on Arlington Heights Road."

"Why do you avoid the tollway?"

"I can't find it."

"Are you in favor of entrance and exit ramps at Arlington Heights Rd.?"

"The problem goes deeper than that."

how much the government should do for the citizens. If the government makes life easy or convenient we might have time to spend with our families. This could of course not hurt the divorce rate. There is a lot to be said for the lack of ramps and the encouragement of the pioneer spirit in motorists.

"If ramps are built will you use them?"

"Yes, of course. After all, we would still like to get that boy home from Indiana or at least wave at him as we pass the D.C. sign."

The weather bureau, the village administrations and the police departments of the northwestern states have taken a considerable amount of criticism because they failed to predict the magnitude of the pending disaster in the form of Friday's toradoes.

There were no toradoes straight ahead in this area. The winds were from the west, through Higgins and Mount Prospect, while of toradoic velocity, were more from the north.

The difference between a torado and high powered wind is that the torado is more intense in its ferocity that moving in a circular motion, and that it is more violent and the open space into a mass of destruction.

On April 21, 1904, the worst killer torado in Chicago's history hit in Lake Michigan, and the Lake Zurich area, the worst toradoed for some 50 people from here, experienced toradoes that took Oak Lake just two hours after the Chicago torado, that the destruction of toradoes hit of catastrophic.

We can recall that the weather bureau in Chicago gave its first torado alert at 1:30 p.m. on that final Friday.

Increasing funds spending on health, education and welfare is killing the philanthropy, say some people. But the industry is looking ahead.

Philanthropy in the United States hit a new high of almost $13.6 billion. That was $16 million more than the previous year.

Of this record total, nearly 50 percent was accounted for by the American Red Cross, the United Way and the United Negro College Fund.

The sources of the new money lie in the pockets of the rich. An estimated $1.25 billion was given by 100 families, 10 percent in bequests; and a new high of $1.1 billion came from corporations and insurance firms.

Driving for religious purposes continues to be the largest. It accounted for $2.5 billion in gifts. Health and education received $2.3 billion. The rest went to other causes.

Of the more than 2,000,000 gifts given last year, 2,000 were valued at $1 million. Gifts to other welfare, civil, cultural, research and private for-profit groups made up the balance.

In addition to money, $4 million in services, talents and property were given.

By a wide variety of ways, Two percent of the nation's income and 250,000 in War of Poverty money were given.

The record shows that it is not government spending nor the fluctuations of the economy that determine private giving but the pre-eminence of the economy and the state of the nation.

Giving has faithfully kept pace with the economy. From about $1.5 billion in 1941 to more than $13.6 billion in 1961, the average annual increase has been 10 percent a year for which firms figure are at least 5 percent.

It is not done years alone, says gift-giving has totalled more than $100 billion in the last 50 years, concluding that "in no country in the world has philanthropy been so high as in the United States."

Remember May Day?

A Festive Basket for the Luncheon Table

BY MARILYN NELPERS
Women's Editor

May Day (May 1) is a day for Maypoles and May baskets. On the first day of May children at all ages make up one of the colorful paper and fill them with early May flowers they could find - anywhere they could find them. Early May Day morning, or even the night before when it was dark, about the children would make a "mad dash" up to the front door to hang a basket before they were discovered.

One special May Day event comes place each year at the high school with a very special Miss Queen and her court selected to dance around a decorated May basket welcoming spring.

FOR AN annual luncheon add-on to a May Day luncheon menu, we suggest May baskets made of carrots and Nabisco Rice Honey filled with cranberry chignon filling. Prepare an original May basket - a variation of the perfection salad - with its very own Maypole in rigidly rolled form of colored paper decorated with white and yellow with a fresh flower.

MAY BASKETS

56 caramels (1 pound)
4 cups Nabisco Rice Honey

Melt caramels with water in top of double boiler. When mixture is smooth add Nabisco Rice Honey, mix well until they are evenly coated. Remove from heat, fill top over cranberry chignon filling. Prepare an original May basket - a variation of the perfection salad - with its very own Maypole in rigidly rolled form of colored paper decorated with white and yellow with a fresh flower.

candied cereal is slightly better. Lay stand at room temperature for 1 hour. Gently run a sharp knife around the edge of each cup and loosen. Fill with cranberry chignon filling. Top with handles. Make 12 baskets.

CRANBERRY CHIGNON FILLING

1 tablespoon (1 envelope) softened gelatin
1/4 cup cold water
1-lb. can Ocean Spray frozen whole berry cranberry sauce
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon dried lemon rind
2 teaspoons lemon juice
2 egg whites
2 tablespoons sugar

Place gelatin in custard cup. Add cold water and let stand for 2 minutes. Place gelatin over 1/2 cup cranberry sauce. Add to cranberry sauce, stirred with a fork or whole cranberry.

berry sauce. Add salt, lemon rind, and lemon juice, stir well. Beat egg whites until stiff. Add sugar 1 tablespoon at a time. Fold into cranberry mixture. Spoon filling into basket and chill until firm. Attach handles just before serving.

CRANBERRY VEGGIE MOLD

2 tablespoons (2 envelopes) softened gelatin
2 eggs 1 1/2 cups Ocean Spray frozen whole berry cranberry sauce
1-1/2 cups sugar
2 tablespoons margarine
1 egg shredded green cabbage
1/2 cup ground corn
1/2 cup dried green peas
1/2 cup sliced red radishes

In a small saucepan, combine gelatin over 1/2 cup cranberry sauce. Let stand for 5 minutes. Add to cranberry sauce, stirred with a fork or whole cranberry.

minors to police. Place over low heat and stir constantly until mixture begins to set. Beat egg whites until stiff. Add sugar 1 tablespoon at a time. Fold into cranberry mixture. Spoon filling into basket and chill until firm. Attach handles just before serving.

Day at HOME

Thursday, April 27, 1967

ROBERT LEACH, co-ordinator of special education classes in Elementary and Junior High Schools, spoke to Greenbelt-IV NE parents about what part the parent plays in the development of a physically handicapped child.

Day Camp Seeks Help

High school girls who are looking for something to do this summer have an opportunity to help a summer day camp for the Camp Fire Girls.

The Camp Fire Girls are presently recruiting high school girls as program aides to assist counselors working with troops of girls at their Summer Day Camp. The camp will be held from June 27 - 30 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Mount Preserve. Free transportation will be provided.

Applications are now being accepted and those interested should contact Mrs. Joan Swanson, 308 S. Main, Arlington Heights, phone 296-3546 or secure application forms from your high school gym teacher.

A Maypole and May baskets lend a festive air to a May luncheon table.

Start Stewardship Program Tonight

A three-part theme of "Steady, Contemplation and Commitment" is planned for the week as a part of the stewardship building program of the Arlington Heights Congregational United Church of Christ, 1201 W. Randolph Rd.

The study portion will be by Don Smith, William Scott and presented on these evenings:

Thursday, April 27 at 8 p.m.; Friday, April 28 at 8 p.m.; Saturday, April 29 at 8 p.m.

The evening will begin with the film, "The Gift," which was made by the United Church to help the laity understand the practice of Christian stewardship. A study of the week of the local church will be shown in a locally produced audio-visual program, "The Stewardship of the Church," by John Schuster, James Vitor and Ralph Truitt.

According to the general chairman, Charles Aldage, "The success of this program will determine whether the physical facilities of the church will be expanded."

EACH church member will attend one of these meetings. Gerry Lindeman is the study co-ordinator, assisted by Gerald Melbo and Mrs. Dorothy Rice. The audio-visual was produced and directed by Dennis Kelleher, Jack White.

AAUW Seek Book Mountain

Collecting a mountain of books is the aim of the women of AAUW in this program for their own book sale.

Other members of the Northwestern Suburban branch of the American Association of University Women will sell books, records and magazines at Randolph on Friday, May 12 and Saturday, May 13.

"We plan to have a wide selection of books which should appeal to any reader," said Mrs. M. Ruchka of Des Plaines. Telephone chairman for the sale is to raise money for the Fellowship endowment fund. AAUW Fellowship provides assistance for doctoral and post-doctoral study by women scholars in various fields in the country.

Some Day

Cleaning the spools of unfinished items—
—It is true that School has a course in "facts of life" for people in the third grade! Has the program for planned parenthood ever received federal funds?

—It will be time for the season's first carnival soon and then we can resume the case of security measures.

—It is too bad that Barrington did not get the home-erecting contracts for those 4,000 apartments and maintenance workers could enjoy riding the monorail into Chicago every day.

The Space Shuttle

—How that means are getting their tax bills maybe they will take positive action to stop school vandalism — as unnecessary waste of tax money.

—Could it be possible that Arlington Heights is named after Raymond Arlington who lives on Buffalo Grove Rd.?

—Somebody ought to write a book about the man with 300 parakeets in his basement.

—The day they decide to talk about bus service in the suburbs.

—Michael J. Horvitz, state

Director of public accounts, has combined the monetary and fiscal-trust divisions of his office into a single unit.

—Lodg before Arlington Heights or Elk Grove Heights get around to taking the public's pulse on a railway connection.

—Charles E. Kahan had purchased the monetary land to insure its availability if, or when, the railway connection to the suburbs is approved.

—Speaking of the railway, would you believe that bludge brenns and her Arlington Park farm could do more to get the ramp brenns that all the public and industrial promoters?

—Now that the high school board has reorganized, it is time to take another vote on naming the new high school in honor of Harold L. Shick.

—The former superior, the superintendent, a high school administrator, checked to himself about his plan to "for sale" signs on his front lawn.

—Speaking of money, why would anybody want an empty garage on their farm?

"Hold it, that isn't genuine—the's wearing those new pastel tie-dye stockings!"

X-Ray Date Set, May 3

Free chest X-rays will be offered in Arlington Heights on May 3, in the middle and parked at the Ben Franklin Store, 9 W. Campbell.

The service, provided by the Suburban C & L Company Tuberculosis Diagnostic Division and the Chicago and Cook County, will be offered from 1 to 4 in the afternoon.

One more story from Ireland then back home to the current events in Arlington Heights.

Last Saturday the headline in the Dublin Evening Herald read: "Horse Trial by Fire." The headline in the Dublin Evening Post read: "Wink of Death After Toronto."

It was more than startling to be far from home reading the list of commutes he was making for the people of the community.

It was indeed a tragedy to be notified as soon as the fire was completed. It was about 5 a.m. in Dublin and news in Arlington Heights.

WE WERE vastly relieved to find that only another branch from the same old stereotyped view had fallen on the news.

We were in a small town called Rathfriland on Sunday night in the Central Hotel when we heard that the fire had started.

The cause of "Murder" and "police" will start off a copy and rubber chain, one 150.

The whole thing is the brain of political machine. On May 3, from the St. James Hotel, who was very busy, how much less they think their protection.

The news at Rathfriland will be a fully completed report of the highway news and the play which will begin on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Director Ellen Janda has announced that most of the play will be to start the community show.

and shortly the railway will be complete. The show will be a copy of the play which will begin on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Director Ellen Janda has announced that most of the play will be to start the community show.
